Good afternoon Marion,

I hope all is well! I wanted to touch base with you to get a sense of when my next General will be. I realize that you're likely catching up on things after the holidays and juggling aldicarb, so there's not a tremendous rush on my end. I only noticed that the meeting series (every other Thursday from 10:30 AM – 11:00 AM) seems to have ended.

I'll keep an eye out for the meeting invitation in the future, but please let me know if you have any questions in the meantime!

Best regards,

Briana
